iOS Developer Account Requirements

Do I need to get my own iOS developer account?

Yes, we'll need to publish your app under your own iOS Developer Account.

What do I need to provide to Mobile Roadie if I want to use my existing iOS developer account?

You must provide your username and password to Mobile Roadie to an Administrator level user in order for us to publish and serve your account in the future.

How do I submit my iOS Developer credentials?

1. Log in to the Mobile Roadie CMS
2. Click on Manage Content
3. Click on App Vitals
4. Refer to the iOS Developer Credentials area

You will need to supply your Apple ID username, password, and company display name

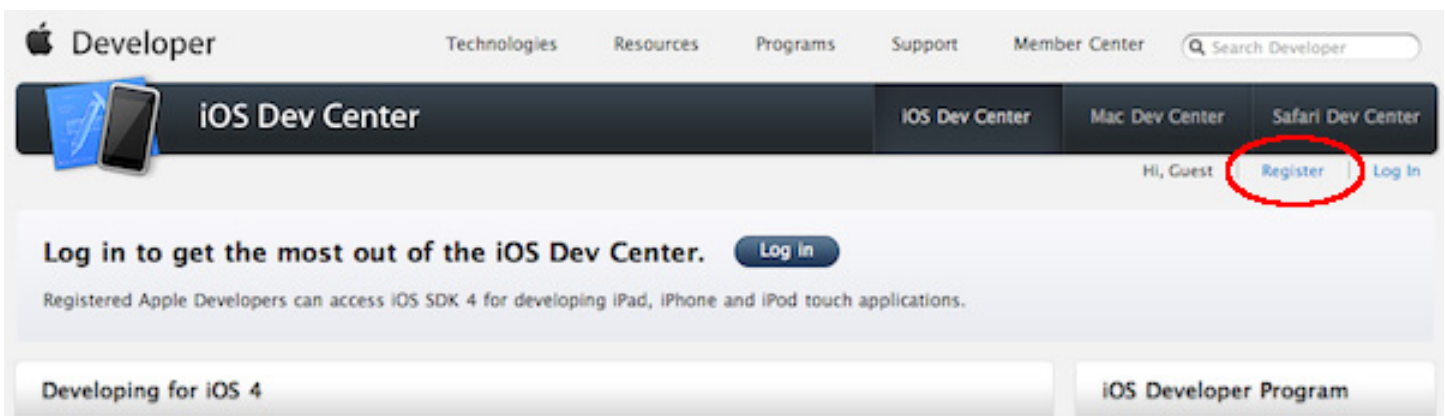

How do I create an iOS Developer Account?

To publish an iOS App using the Mobile Roadie platform, you have to first register as an Apple Developer and then pay to join Apple's Developer Program. Joining the Developer Program enables you to publish Apps to Apple's App Store.

iOS Developer Account Creation Step by Step Guide

Apple Developer Program Enrollment

Enroll in the Apple Developer Programs

1. Register as an Apple Developer

If you have not already registered as an Apple Developer, we will walk you through the process so you can complete and submit your enrollment.

2. Select Your Programs

Once you have registered as an Apple Developer, you will select a Program (or Programs) based on the platform you wish to develop for.

3. Complete Your Purchase

After purchasing your Program, you will receive an email from Apple Developer Support with information on how to access your Program resources.

Technical Requirement:
You must have an Intel-based Mac running Mac OS X Snow Leopard to develop Mac OS X and iOS apps for the App Store.

Step 4

Select option to create new account under New Apple Developer and on the following screen choose to sign up as an individual.

Are you new or a registered Apple developer?

New Apple Developer

- ☒ I need to create a new account for an Apple Developer Program.
- ☐ I currently have an Apple ID I would like to use for my enrollment in an Apple Developer Program.

Existing Apple Developer

- ☐ I'm registered as a developer with Apple and would like to enroll in a paid Apple Developer Program.
- ☐ I'm currently an ADC Select, Premier, or Student Member and would like to enroll in an Apple Developer Program.
- ☐ I'm currently enrolled in iOS Developer Program or Mac Developer Program and want to add an additional program to my existing account.

Step 5

Complete the personal profile information then when completing the Apple ID personal profile, please remember that you will need to provide these details to Mobile Roadie upon successful sign up. Therefore please do not use a password that you use elsewhere.
